

We're hiring!

Research Associate

About the job

Are you interested in joining a recruitment business with a difference? Would you like to work in growth technology industries that fundamentally change how we live and connect? Would you enjoy working for a small but growing business that works all around the world?

If the answer is yes to any of the above, then neuco could be your ideal next employer as we are looking for Research Associates to join our growing team.

You'll join a team of expert consultants and immediately be a core part of our team that delivers exceptional candidates to our amazing clients.

If you would enjoy a challenge in a commercial environment fully supported by your teammates, have an inquisitive mindset, and have a thirst to learn, we'd love to hear from you!

What you'll do...

- Carry out in-depth research to source and deliver brilliant candidates for our amazing client base
- Build a network of outstanding contacts in truly exciting technology domains
- Begin your journey to becoming an industry expert by staying up to date with industry news and key trends

What you'll need...

- Commercial understanding/experience (an understanding of recruitment is useful but not essential)
- An interest in technology – externally to understand the markets we recruit, internally to master the technology platforms we use daily
- The curiosity to learn, understand and improve
- The desire to work in a 'team first' environment

Why you should apply...

- You will play a pivotal role in the next stage of neuco's growth
- Your ideas and inputs will be listened to and implemented
- You'll be joining a business with a 'team first' mentality
- We offer complete flexibility in working hours/location
- You'll work directly with the owners of neuco and the wider team

About neuco

neuco are a Specialist Recruitment and Executive Search company, focused on four core sectors – Content & Media, Satellite & NewSpace, Connectivity, and Cyber Security.

We are based in Brighton, UK, but work globally having completed projects in more than 50 countries in the past few years.

Our whole model and ethos are built around being a brilliant team. Whilst it's hard to say we're entirely unique, we're certainly not your typical recruitment firm, we're much better than that.
